Hartwall Arena 2012 - Luxury Sky Box Service

2012
ICE HOCKEY
WORLD
CHAMPIONSHIP
FINLAND & SWEDEN
Helsinki - Stockholm

While watching a game at the arena is an experience in itself, seeing it from your own luxury sky box takes it to another level.

Most of the hundred sky boxes in Hartwall Arena, the main venue of the 2012 IIHF Ice Hockey World Championship, are privately-owned. When the owner can't make it to the event, the box is empty. The World Championship organization has now started a box rental service to create opportunities for better use of the boxes.

- This is a win-win situation. The owners get paid for a box that would otherwise be empty and the party renting it gets a unique opportunity to see the World Championships, says Mika Sulin, Finnish general secretary.

- Most of the boxes have 15 seats to watch the game, but the total capacity is for 20 people.
- Price of the sky box includes 15 tickets, and additional 5 can also be purchased at the same time as the whole package.
- Private Fast Track - entrance to enter Hartwall Arena
- Security
- Private bathroom
- In addition to the price, various unique services can be purchased:
 - o host: former Finnish national team player
 - more information: matti.porvari@smliga-alumni.fi
 - o food and drinks
 - more information: ravintolat.hartwall-areena@restel.fi
 - o own waitress
 - o great deals on merchandise products
